“Bewitched, Bothered & Bewildered”

MOS Display Wins First Place At Tower Hill!

Led by Susan Flier, MOS members worked hard to create this beautiful vignette. Following the theme of the show, Susan's great idea to use the song really brought the exhibit together. Many thanks to all those who brought plants in for the exhibit and worked so hard to make it a success.

A Huge THANK YOU goes to our show chair - Johanna Eckstrom

Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered is over, but oh, what wonderful memories! The 2009 Annual Show and Sale was one of MOS' most successful events ever, bringing some 2,150 new and seasoned orchid growers to Tower Hill Botanic Garden.

After months of planning, set-up day, October 29, was upon us. In spite of a few last minute room changes and floor plan modifications, the show committee responded with aplomb and produced a picture perfect show!

People who know me know that I am 'a bit' fanatic about orchid shows ... I wear this 'badge' proudly! I am lucky not only to have orchids to enjoy at home every day, but to have a venue in which to share these beauties with others. I am even luckier to have a team of hard-working orchid nuts without whom an event of this magnitude wouldn't be possible.

Please accept my personal thanks for your role in making 'Bewitched, Bothered, and Bewildered' an event of which we can all be proud! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

With warmest regards,
Joanna K Eckstrom

PS ... We've already set a date for next year so please mark your calendars for November 4 thru 7th 2010 at Tower Hill Botanic Garden. Next year, we'll have ribbon and AOS judging on November 5th and the regular AOS judging session on November 6th. As the event is NOT on Halloween, we need a new name / theme for the show, new ideas and new volunteers! Please join us! MOSOrchidShow@comcast.net

The Hospitality Table at the show was so welcoming. Manned by MOS volunteers, several people, inspired by the beautiful displays, joined MOS right on the spot. Many others mailed in their dues. We hope to see all these new members at our next meeting. (If I've missed anyone – please let me know.) Please welcome them...

Sasha Varsanofieva, Susan Flier, Justin Brenner, Lynn Hennessey
